THE POPPER HOMICIDE. Assaulted by Persons Unknown.

Coroner Keenan yesterday morning at his office, 40 East Houston street, concluded his investiga-40 East Houston street, concluded his investigation in the case of Dr. Joseph Popper, late of 537 Fifth street, who died from fracture of the skull, caused, as alleged, by having been knocked or pushed down on the pavement early on the morning of the 22d ult. as previously reported.

Albert Beeler, of 219 avenue B, testified that on the night in question he saw a large crowd following a man, supposed to be deceased, some of whom shoved him against a wagon; never saw any of the men before; the parties went on, and soon after the witness heard a blow and saw the man in his snirt sleeves fail; the whole crowd then ran away; they were all young men.

The case was then submitted to the jury, who found that death resulted from a blow at the hands of some person or persons unknown, on the 22d day of June, in avenue A, near Fifth street.

Captain Walsh and Detective Dunn, of the Seventeenth precinct, will continue their search for the parties who are supposed to have assaulted Or, Popper.
